

Submission of Manuscripts

All articles must be written in English. A well-written paper helps share your results most clearly. Manuscript must be “spell checked” and “grammar checked” before submission, and our English editor will edit your manuscript for grammar, spelling, and other language errors so that your ideas could be presented at their best.

For the submission of new, revised and final accepted manuscripts, a single Word DOC (DOCX) file containing graphical abstract, text, tables and all graphics should be uploaded as “Main Document” on the File Upload screen. Tables and all graphics need to be embedded in the text of the DOC file where they belong (not collected at the end).

Note: Do not choose the file designation “Image” to upload graphics as separate files when uploading new manuscripts. Supporting Information is uploaded as a single, separate PDF file with all graphics embedded by choosing the file designation “Supporting Information”.

CJSC Submission System and Submission Steps

The Chinese Journal of Structural Chemistry offers web-based manuscript submission and peer-review via ScholarOne Manuscripts. This service guarantees fast and safe submission of manuscripts and rapid assessment processes. Note: When multiple files are uploaded as “Main Document” or “Image”, the system generates a single PDF file. Only Word DOC (DOCX) and TIFF files are included in the PDF file generated. File formats not included are Excel XLS, PowerPoint PPT, ChemDraw CDX, ISIS Draw SKC, GIF,

PCT, PSD, BMP, 123, RAR, SIT and ZIP.
